WHO IS M20 ASSOCIATES?

M20 Associates provides information technology, cyber security and intelligence support services to organizations operating in challenging environments. We help the DoD analyze and protect critical and vulnerable information in support of each agency's unique mission. Globally in the private sector, we help business uncover weaknesses, unlock opportunities, manage existential threats, as well as undertake a proactive approach to assist in implementing preventative measures through business intelligence, risk management, investigative and strategic consulting.

Our subject matter experts have years of operational, analytical and systems expertise that help us support programs and initiatives specializing in intelligence analysis and operations, cyber security, specialized security solutions and information technology.

WHY US?

M20 has a proven track record within the public and private sectors in providing reliable, dynamic solutions in some of the most challenging environments. Our time-tested process, methodologies and resources enable us to meet and exceed our clients' expectations.
